

Welcome to Awakenings!

Your therapist at Awakenings Center for Intimacy and Sexuality is committed to your emotional health and personal growth. The following information defines the business aspect of our relationship. Please read and sign the following statement on confidentiality and informed consent.

Confidentiality

Your clinician will not share information with any person without your written consent except as required by law. The clinician is required to release information in the following four situations:

1. When formally ordered to release information by a court of competent jurisdiction;
2. When formally ordered to release information by authorized federal officials who are conducting national security and intelligence activities or providing protective services to the President or other important officials; by law we cannot reveal when or if we have disclosed such information to the federal government;
3. Child or elder abuse is occurring, or there is reason to suspect that it is occurring; or,
4. A serious threat against yourself, others, or property.

Appointment times

We will work with you to find an appointment time that meets your needs. If an ideal time is not immediately available, you will be moved to a more convenient time as soon as it can be arranged. When an appointment is made, that time is set aside for you and will not be given to someone else unless you specifically cancel the appointment. Therefore, it is very important that appointments be kept. Please be on time to avoid losing treatment time and have payment ready to avoid using clinical time to conduct business. Our schedules generally will not allow making up time if you are late.

The initial diagnostic session and subsequent sessions are 55 minutes long.

Therapists and Fees

Our fees vary by therapist; most insurance carriers cover a portion of our fees as an out-of-network provider for mental health.

Laurie Watson, LPC (#4162), LMFT (#758), our Center Director, is a Certified Sex Therapist and certified psychodynamic theorist. The initial therapeutic and subsequent sessions last 55 minutes. Fees for therapy with Laurie are $250 per session.

Carrie Roberson Fasola, LMFT (#1447) was graduated from the nationally accredited Marriage and Family Therapy (MFT) program at East Carolina University and went on to gain a North Carolina license in MFT. Carrie's 55-minute initial diagnostic session is $175; subsequent 55-minute appointments are $145.

Caroline Byrd Landen, LMFT (#1475) was graduated from the nationally accredited Marriage and Family Therapy (MFT) program at the University of Southern Mississippi. Caroline's 55-minute initial diagnostic session is $175; subsequent 55-minute appointments are $145.

Lauren Campbell, LCSW (#C00079) was graduated from Binghamton University with a Master's degree in Clinical Social Work. Lauren's 55-minute initial diagnostic session is $175; subsequent 55-minute appointments are $145.

Natalie Chigozie, LCSW (#C006447) was graduated from East Carolina University with a Master's degree in Social Work. Natalie's 55-minute initial diagnostic session is $175; subsequent 55-minute appointments are $145.

Kate Double, LCSW (#C008960) was graduated from University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with a Master's degree in Social Work. Kate's 55-minute initial diagnostic session is $175; subsequent 55-minute appointments are $145.

Adrienne Alden, LMFTA (#10062A) was graduated from Pfeiffer University with a Master's degree in Marriage and Family Therapy. Adrienne's fee is $120 per session; the initial diagnostic session and subsequent sessions are 55 minutes in length.

Reed Watson, LMFTA (#11069A) was graduated from the nationally accredited Marriage and Family Therapy (MFT) program at East Carolina University. Reed's fee is $120 per session; the initial diagnostic session and subsequent sessions are 55 minutes in length.

At the Center, these fees are the same for individual or couples sessions. Oftentimes longer sessions allow more in-depth exploration of issues and clients find themselves making quicker progress. You may speak with your therapist about arranging a double session or weekend intensive.

For after-hours and emergency calls, you will be charged pro rata in fifteen-minute increments. Our fees increase on January 1 on an every-other-year basis. E-mail communication regarding therapy issues will be charged similar to a phone consultation with a minimum of one 15-minute increment. Any consultations with other therapists are charged at the same rate as your regular session. Contact by e-mail for making appointments or billing issues is not charged. Therapists do not discuss issues by email.

Payment

Payment in full is due at the time service is rendered. We will provide you a statement at the end of each month that can be submitted to your insurance company for reimbursement. We accept cash, personal checks, and MasterCard/Visa. We do not have the capability of making change; so if you plan to pay by cash, please bring the correct amount. There will be a $30 service charge for all returned checks. Non-payment of fees can result in termination of professional services and collection activity for any outstanding balances.

Cancelled or Missed Appointments

If an appointment needs to be rescheduled or cancelled, please do so as soon as possible so that the time may be made available to someone else. We charge the full fee for missed appointments, unless notice of cancellation is received 48 hours in advance. Exceptions for emergencies (example: child in hospital, car wreck, death in family) may be made for one session during your treatment. No exceptions are made for: change in business schedule, lack of babysitter, forgotten appointment, or school schedule conflict.

Telephone sessions may be used in lieu of your in-person contact in most situations to keep the continuity of treatment and prevent you from being charged for unused appointment hours. Accessing us by e-mail to inform us of your absence and give us the best phone number to call is often the fastest means of communication. Email may be used for business communication only; all clinical discussion must take place in person.

If you need to cancel after hours or on weekends, please call our voice mail. Voice mail service is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week when we are not answering the telephone directly. Payments for missed appointments or late cancellations are due with your regular fee at the next visit. Missed appointments or late cancellations are not reimbursable by insurance.

Social Media

Therapy is a professional relationship and Awakenings therapists do not associate with clients using their personal social media.

Diagnosis

Most insurance companies as standard procedure require a diagnosis for the person being treated. This diagnosis will be discussed with you and becomes a permanent part of your health records.
